Subject: Appointment of Dr. Deborah Lockhart as Deputy Assistant Director, Directorate for Mathematical and Physical Sciences,
National Science Foundation

I am pleased to announce the career SES appointment of Dr. Deborah Lockhart as Deputy Assistant Director, Directorate for Mathematical and Physical Sciences (MPS), National Science Foundation (NSF), effective April 3, 2016.

Since Dr. Lockhart's arrival at NSF in 1988, she has held numerous positions in three directorates: MPS, Computer and Information Sciences and Engineering (CISE), and Education and Human Resources (EHR). She was a Program Director in the Division of Mathematical Sciences (DMS/MPS), Deputy Division Director in DMS/MPS, and Deputy Division Director in the Division of Information and Intelligent Systems/CISE. She has also held acting Division Director appointments in EHR and CISE.

Dr. Lockhart received her M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in Mathematics from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and her B.A. in Mathematics from New York University. She held academic faculty appointments at Michigan Technological University, where she also served as Head of the Department of Computer Science.

Please join me in congratulating Dr. Deborah Lockhart on her new appointment. Her office will be located in 1005 Stafford I.
